DIA thanks you for your contributions and continued support of DIA's mission. This outlines our agreement with you regarding your presentation(s) at DIA's meeting.

You, as the undersigned, retain ownership of all copyright and other intellectual property rights in your presentation(s) and accompanying materials. You authorize and grant permission to DIA to use, reproduce, license, sell, display, and distribute copies of your presentation and materials (e.g., PowerPoint slides and/or other handout materials), in any medium or technology (including online) consistent with DIA's nonprofit and tax exempt purposes. You also authorize DIA to record your presentation by any audio, video, or audio-visual means and to use your image, voice, and biographical information in connection with promotion and distribution of DIA's educational offerings and programs, including the right to create a synchronized audiovisual work consisting of your presentation and accompanying materials. You agree to waive any right to royalties or compensation for any of the rights you have granted DIA in this agreement. You also retain the right to use, make, or publish your presentation and materials at any other time or place, as you may determine.

You acknowledge that the views and opinions expressed in your presentation and any written materials that you contribute for the Program are yours and should not be attributed to DIA, its directors, officers, employees, volunteers, members, chapters, councils, Special Interest Area Communities or affiliates, or any organization with which you are employed or affiliated.

To the best of your knowledge, you agree that your presentation and accompanying materials do not violate any proprietary or personal rights of others (including copyright, trademark, patent, or privacy rights), are factually accurate, and contain nothing defamatory or otherwise unlawful. You have full authority to enter into this agreement and have obtained all necessary permissions or licenses from any individuals or organizations whose material is included or used in your presentation or materials.

If you are an employee or representative of a government agency and if your presentation is presented as such, this presentation and accompanying materials may be considered government works and in the "public domain;" therefore, DIA may use your presentation and materials as provided above. The other provisions of this agreement remain in effect.

I agree to the Speaker Authorization for Use of Presentation Materials.
